“What to Bring” Checklist

- ✓ A completed Client Information Form (for first timers).
- ✓ A food supply sufficient for the length of stay. If you have a food “scoop” that accurately measures portions, please label it and include it. See the “details” section of the website for more complete instructions.
- ✓ Any medications that your dog is currently taking or may need. See the “details” section of the website for more complete instructions.
- ✓ Snacks or treats in a clearly labeled package or container.
- ✓ Your dog’s collar with updated tags.
- ✓ Bedding, i.e. Blankets or pillows that your dog normally uses. If your dog is a “cool floor” sleeper (any many are), it is not necessary to bring a large amount of bedding.
- ✓ A Note on Crates: We have them and prefer to use ours, however, we can use your crate if you so desire. Some dogs are just picky that way and we are happy to accommodate.
- ✓ A Note on Bark Control Collars or Devices. If your dog has a bark control collar or device, PLEASE BRING IT. We will use it if necessary.

Please DO NOT bring the following items:

- Food Bowls
- Favorite bones
- Favorite toys (toys you are willing to never see again are OK☺)
- Leashes (have it with you when you drop off and pick up)
- Choke collars
